

Phil Brown's Art Classes

Pastel Classes and Oil/Acrylic Classes March/April 2008

Phil Brown will be teaching classes in Pastels and classes in Oils/Acrylics at The Center for the Arts in Grass Valley for students of all levels. If you wish to register for class(es), you may hold a place by mailing Phil a check (see information in box at right), sent with a note designating which session(s) you wish to attend, email and phone number, and the medium. Classes tend to fill rapidly so mail your check soon.

March/April Classes 2008

Mondays March 17, 24, 31, April 7, 14, 21

Pastels 9:30 am–12:30 pm • Oils 2:00–5:00 pm

Fee: $130 • Class Size limit: 10

Location: Class sessions will be held upstairs in The Center for the Arts Annex classroom one door up the street from the Center (on the corner).

Format: Similar to previous classes, the classes are for beginning, intermediate, and advanced students. We will be developing your own ideas, technical skills, consistency, and eye through independent study using photos. We will probably have an optional still life challenge for one or two meetings.

Policies for All Classes: Students provide their own materials. A list of materials and class confirmations will be sent out in March. A check for the total fee secures your place in a session. Sessions are sold as sets of 6 classes, not individual classes. Refunds will not be given unless there are extreme circumstances as determined by the instructor.

Public Parking is available on Richardson Street behind the Annex (east side of parking lot only). It is not reserved for classes, however. First come, first served.

Call: If you are interested in a figure painting set of classes. I am trying to set that up now. It will be more expensive to cover the cost of models and a smaller class size.
